Chews Happiness Earns Animal Wellness Magazine Stamp of Approval

BOULDER, CO – Chews Happiness® recently earned the 2020 Animal Wellness Magazine Approved Certificate, which recognizes superior quality in promoting the wellness of animals, for their Barkaron™ super healthy, Decadent Doggie Dessert™.

The Animal Wellness Product Pick is awarded only to those products that significantly promote animal health and wellness and recognizes that the French macaron-inspired Barkaron introduces a new, healthy way for people to share experiences with their dogs through a handcrafted doggie dessert sourced from pristine, wholesome ingredients with functional health benefits.

The delicacies feature organic ingredients that are ethically sourced and housed in eco-friendly gift packaging. Barkarons are not only made with real ingredients, but they are also thoroughly and comprehensively tested for harmful toxins, pesticides, PCBs, heavy metals, lactose and dangerous microbes.

Barkarons contain sustainably and ethically sourced antioxidant-packed, special ingredients, such as camel cheese, to promote immune, digestive, and skin & coat health.

For more information, including company and product introductory videos, please check out the Barkaron information page: <https://chewshappiness.com/barkaron-information/>.

Chews Happiness is a new artisanal dog-products business and social enterprise that brings natural, wholesome, handcrafted creations to America's pets, enabling pet parents to share experiences with their pets in new and meaningful ways. Chews Happiness' creations are eco-friendly, indulgent, and support indigenous lifestyles.

Animal Wellness Magazine has, for 20 years stood for providing the absolute best educational content to help your beautiful dog and cat live the most naturally long, healthy and happy life possible.
