

Ethical Teams up with Doc & Phoebe

Ethical Products announces two new product additions to the Doc & Phoebe line of cat feeding systems. The updated patented product, The Hunting Feeder now with an adjustable feature, designed by a veterinarian is complemented with The Hunting Snacker and The Wet Feeder. All three products were designed to allow cats to hunt, catch, play and eat portion controlled meals throughout the day while simultaneously correcting problematic feline behavior.

Dr. Elizabeth Bales, founder of the company will be showcasing her product line in the Ethical Products booth, No. 2335.

About Ethical Products, Inc.

Founded in 1952, Ethical Products has been delivering innovative products to the pet specialty channel at value price points. The company has offices in three continents and introduces over 100 new products each year. Its global headquarters is located in Bloomfield, NJ. For more information and to view its complete product lineup, visit www.ethicalpet.com.

